

A Year With Frog and Toad Audition Scene #1: Three Birds

(The three birds have returned to the glen for the start of spring. They discuss that winter has ended; spring is in the air; and they will see their friends, Frog and Toad for another year.)

Bird 1: Winter's for the birds!

Bird 2: No, it isn't

Bird 1: It's an expression.

Bird 2: Oh.

Bird 3: Winter is all over! The snow has been snowed!

Bird 1: Spring is here...

Bird 2: Which starts a year...

All three Birds: A year with frog and toad!

Bird 1: Well, it's true folks. Spring is almost here. The sun will be shining. The flowers will be growing and the birds will be chirping.

Bird 2: Chirp chirppity chirp!

Bird 3: Over here we have Frog. And over here we have Toad. They are both at the end of a long hibernation.

Bird 2: Let's take a peek in and see what they're dreaming about.
