

A Year With Frog and Toad Audition Scene #2: Frog and Toad

(Frog and Toad are out in their respective yards giving them a spring cleaning. Toad decides that s/he is going to plant a garden.)

Toad: Frog, I think that this year I'd like to plant a garden.

Frog: You would?

Toad: Yes, I would.

Frog: A garden is hard work.

Toad: I'm not afraid of hard work.

Frog: Well, it just so happens that I have some flower seeds here in my pocket.
(Frog hands a packet of seeds to Toad.) Plant these seeds in the garden and water them. And soon you will have a garden.

Toad: How soon?

Frog: Quite soon.

(Toad goes to his yard. He plants the seeds pressing them down one at a time with his finger.)

Toad: All right. Now I will plant the seeds. There's one, two, three, four, five... (Toad pours the remainder of the seeds on to the stage and presses them down very quickly.) Sixseveneightninetenelevenlallalafifty, you have been planted. And now some water. (Toad pours water on the seeds.) All right. Start growing...I said start growing! (Toad bends to the ground.) GROW!
