

A Year With Frog and Toad Audition Scene #4: Toad Monologue

(Toad visits Frog's home to bring him lunch. Toad reads a note on the door on the door that Frog has gone to the island to be alone. Toad is concerned about his friend and decides bring Frog lunch anyway.)

Frog? Frog? I have come to surprise you with a fine lunch of iced tea and sandwiches. Oh, look. There's a note. (reading) "Dear Toad, I am not at home. I went to the island in the lake to be alone." he wants to be a lone? he has me for a friend. Why should he want to be alone? He must be very sad. What can I do? I should bring him a surprise to cheer him up. What can I bring? I know, lunch. I will bring him this fine lunch of sandwiches and iced tea.
