

A Year With Frog and Toad Audition Scene #5: Mother Frog, Father Frog, Young Frog, Toad

(Frog is sharing a scary story with Toad about his childhood. Frog's story comes to life in the musical.)

Mother Frog: Boo hoo hoo hoo...

Young Frog: There, there, Mother. Why are you so upset?

Mother Frog: It's nothing, son. Mother's only tired, that's all.

Father Frog: Don't you think we should tell him, dear?

Young Frog: Tell me what?

Toad: (caught up in the story) Tell him what?

Father Frog: About what happens when young frogs go out on their own and get lost?

Mother Frog: What lurks out there.

Young Frog: What lurks out there?

Toad: What lurks out there?

Mother Frog: This is bound to frighten you.

Toad and Young Frog: Tell me!

Father Frog: Very well... There is a large and terrible frog

Mother Frog: Terrible!

Father Frog: He's mean and awful with pasty green, wrinkly skin. He eats little bunnies dipped in dirt...

Mother Frog: And he likes frog children for dessert.

Toad and Young Frog: Oh my!

Mother and Father Frog: Beware!
